Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	3 years to 6 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	MAIN DIGITAL CHANNEL: The Doodlebops is a live action show designed to teach life lessons to children under elementary school age, and is intended to promote social and academic readiness. The main characters are the three members of the Doodlebops musical band, their jazzy neighbor MAZZ and their driver Bus Driver Bob. Each episode explores social issues, such as the importance of persistence or the value of openness to new things. The program emphasizes an appreciation of music, and integrates the social lessons into original songs that are repeated through the episodes. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. Inspired by the beloved works of best-selling children's author Richard Scarry, Busytown Mysteries brings the popular adventures of Busytown to preschoolers with an educational, problem-solving twist. Children can follow classic characters such as Huckle, Sally and Lowly as they scour Busytown on fun-filled adventures looking for answers to life's puzzles. Each episode focuses on fostering viewers' problem solving abilities, as the characters use their skills of observation to collect facts, draw inferences from those facts, and ultimately reach conclusions. Each episode also develops vocabulary through words and concepts that are part of the episode's overall theme. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	MAIN DIGITAL CHANNEL: HORSELAND is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	MAIN DIGITAL CHANNEL: Teen Kids News meets FCC requirements for "core children's programming" by providing educational features such as, "Flag Facts" (info on our state flags); "College and You" (tips for choosing and getting into college), "Word" (vocabulary skills training), as well as informational features for teens, such as reports about healthy eating; driving tips for new drivers, and internet predators. The show has been designed to meet needs of children and young adolescents with a unique curiosity about their world. The Program stimulates the 13-16 year olds' curiosity, develops their learning and cognitive, listening and thinking skills, and serves as an enhancement of their academic and educational experience. More than 10,000 schools are using TKN as part of their school curriculum and affiliate stations have already contacted school systems in that regard. The full scripts are available to provide easy access for teachers to use in their classrooms.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F. R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The station began multicasting on September 1, 2011 and for the period covered in this reporting period, the station aired 6.23 hours of core programming on that stream. WLKY are partners with Metro United Way for community initiatives, including "Success by 6," that provides information pertinent to healthy children's issues by age 6, ensuring that all children in our area are prepared to enter school. This information is posted on wlky.com. WLKY sponsors a weekly segment of "Wednesday's Child," which highlights special needs children awaiting adoption in Kentucky. On December 5th, WLKY aired the annual Wednesday's Child Adopt-a-thon from 7-8 pm, seeking donations for their year-round efforts and highlighting older youth still waiting for permanent adoptive homes. In the month of October, WLKY sponsored "Weatherblast" and the IMAX film "Tornado Alley" at the Louisville Science Center. The station set up a display of a green screen and monitor for children to experience presenting the weather. Additionally, every Friday of the month, one of the WLKY Meteorologists spoke to visiting school groups at the Science Center from 10:30 am-2 pm, providing information on current technology to predict weather and how to prepare for a career in weather science. Chief Meteorologist Jay Cardosi and his associates make visits to local elementary schools throughout the school year where they conduct presentations about weather. In addition, WLKY routinely provides tours for local students and student shadow sessions to point out broadcast opportunities. For the second year, WLKY participated with Breckinridge-Franklin Elementary School's Friday "Power Hour" sessions by sending staff to talk about various station job duties, such as photographers, reporters and sales and marketing directors. Children Liaison Director, Debbie Roberson, is a member of the Jefferson County Public School Advisory Board and served on the committee that redesigned the Communication, Arts and Media magnet school curriculum for three area high schools. From November 3-Nov 25, Morning Anchor Natasha Collins featured her school "Cribs" segment during the weekday morning newscasts, highlighting local elementary schools, their unique educational programs and talking with students and faculty.
